Staff meeting.

I talked to Dr. Compton about IIA.

Archduke Charles of Austria came to see me about the activities of certain of our people in the MSA mission there, who he says are favoring the left wing of the Socialist Party in Austria. He feels it is a mistake for our Government officials to interfere in the domestic politics of a foreign country.

Ted Tannenwald came to see me, and we talked about various Point 4 matters, and also a question which had been raised with me this morning by Dr. Compton regarding the use of counterpart funds for financing Fulbright scholarships.

I telephoned the Attorney General this afternoon, to express the hope of this Department that no foreign policy questions would be submitted for decision by the judge who is hearing the Middle East oil companies' case.

Messrs. Bonbright, Byroade, Nitze and Richards met with me to go over various drafts of papers which will be considered later in the afternoon by the Secretary, connected with the reply to Dr. Mossadegh's recent note.

Harry Labouisse called on me. He is returning to Paris tomorrow. He is disturbed, as was Jimmy Dunn when I saw him in London, over the confusion that apparently reigns ~~in Paris~~ in Paris as a result of having four U. S. Ambassadors there, and such a multiplicity of agencies and personnel.
